Fungicide for Pomefruit Postharvest Treatment by Thermal Foggng

fOG®-161 PYR

KEEP OUT OF REACH OF CHILDREN

-phenyl-2-pyrimidinamine

UN3082, Environmentally hazardous substance, liquid, n.o.s. (Pyrimethanil), 9,

Do not apply to pome fruit as soon as possible and no more than 15 days after harvesting.

Follow manufacturer's instructions for cleaning/handling PPE. If no such instructions for a particular product's concentrate. Do not reuse them.

To the extent consistent with applicable law, the exclusive remedy for any special, indirect, incidental, or consequential damages of any kind, including loss of income.

Do not apply to pome fruit that has been previously treated with pyrimethanil via spray or discharge or by other means.

Call a poison control center or doctor for treatment advice.

Do not apply to pome fruit as soon as possible and no more than 15 days after harvesting.

While respiratory protection is not normally required when using this product, fogging and Japanese), Tejocote, and all cultivars, varieties and/or hydrids of these.

The Company's directions for use of this product must be followed carefully.

-phenyl-2-pyrimidinamine

UN3082, Environmentally hazardous substance, liquid, n.o.s. (Pyrimethanil), 9,

Do not apply to pome fruit that has been previously treated with pyrimethanil via spray or discharge or by other means.

Do not apply to pome fruit as soon as possible and no more than 15 days after harvesting.

While respiratory protection is not normally required when using this product, fogging

Do not apply to pome fruit that has been previously treated with pyrimethanil via spray or discharge or by other means.

Do not apply to pome fruit as soon as possible and no more than 15 days after harvesting.

While respiratory protection is not normally required when using this product, fogging

Do not apply to pome fruit that has been previously treated with pyrimethanil via spray or discharge or by other means.

Do not apply to pome fruit as soon as possible and no more than 15 days after harvesting.

While respiratory protection is not normally required when using this product, fogging

Do not apply to pome fruit that has been previously treated with pyrimethanil via spray or discharge or by other means.

Do not apply to pome fruit as soon as possible and no more than 15 days after harvesting.

While respiratory protection is not normally required when using this product, fogging

Do not apply to pome fruit that has been previously treated with pyrimethanil via spray or discharge or by other means.

Do not apply to pome fruit as soon as possible and no more than 15 days after harvesting.

While respiratory protection is not normally required when using this product, fogging

Do not apply to pome fruit that has been previously treated with pyrimethanil via spray or discharge or by other means.

Do not apply to pome fruit as soon as possible and no more than 15 days after harvesting.

While respiratory protection is not normally required when using this product, fogging

Do not apply to pome fruit that has been previously treated with pyrimethanil via spray or discharge or by other means.

Do not apply to pome fruit as soon as possible and no more than 15 days after harvesting.

While respiratory protection is not normally required when using this product, fogging

Do not apply to pome fruit that has been previously treated with pyrimethanil via spray or discharge or by other means.

Do not apply to pome fruit as soon as possible and no more than 15 days after harvesting.

While respiratory protection is not normally required when using this product, fogging

Do not apply to pome fruit that has been previously treated with pyrimethanil via spray or discharge or by other means.

Do not apply to pome fruit as soon as possible and no more than 15 days after harvesting.

While respiratory protection is not normally required when using this product, fogging

Do not apply to pome fruit that has been previously treated with pyrimethanil via spray or discharge or by other means.

Do not apply to pome fruit as soon as possible and no more than 15 days after harvesting.

While respiratory protection is not normally required when using this product, fogging

Do not apply to pome fruit that has been previously treated with pyrimethanil via spray or discharge or by other means.

Do not apply to pome fruit as soon as possible and no more than 15 days after harvesting.

While respiratory protection is not normally required when using this product, fogging

Do not apply to pome fruit that has been previously treated with pyrimethanil via spray or discharge or by other means.

Do not apply to pome fruit as soon as possible and no more than 15 days after harvesting.

While respiratory protection is not normally required when using this product, fogging

Do not apply to pome fruit that has been previously treated with pyrimethanil via spray or discharge or by other means.

Do not apply to pome fruit as soon as possible and no more than 15 days after harvesting.

While respiratory protection is not normally required when using this product, fogging

Do not apply to pome fruit that has been previously treated with pyrimethanil via spray or discharge or by other means.

Do not apply to pome fruit as soon as possible and no more than 15 days after harvesting.

While respiratory protection is not normally required when using this product, fogging

Do not apply to pome fruit that has been previously treated with pyrimethanil via spray or discharge or by other means.

Do not apply to pome fruit as soon as possible and no more than 15 days after harvesting.

While respiratory protection is not normally required when using this product, fogging

Do not apply to pome fruit that has been previously treated with pyrimethanil via spray or discharge or by other means.

Do not apply to pome fruit as soon as possible and no more than 15 days after harvesting.

While respiratory protection is not normally required when using this product, fogging

Do not apply to pome fruit that has been previously treated with pyrimethanil via spray or discharge or by other means.

Do not apply to pome fruit as soon as possible and no more than 15 days after harvesting.

While respiratory protection is not normally required when using this product, fogging

Do not apply to pome fruit that has been previously treated with pyrimethanil via spray or discharge or by other means.

Do not apply to pome fruit as soon as possible and no more than 15 days after harvesting.

While respiratory protection is not normally required when using this product, fogging

Do not apply to pome fruit that has been previously treated with pyrimethanil via spray or discharge or by other means.

Do not apply to pome fruit as soon as possible and no more than 15 days after harvesting.

While respiratory protection is not normally required when using this product, fogging

Do not apply to pome fruit that has been previously treated with pyrimethanil via spray or discharge or by other means.

Do not apply to pome fruit as soon as possible and no more than 15 days after harvesting.

While respiratory protection is not normally required when using this product, fogging

Do not apply to pome fruit that has been previously treated with pyrimethanil via spray or discharge or by other means.

Do not apply to pome fruit as soon as possible and no more than 15 days after harvesting.

While respiratory protection is not normally required when using this product, fogging

Do not apply to pome fruit that has been previously treated with pyrimethanil via spray or discharge or by other means.

Do not apply to pome fruit as soon as possible and no more than 15 days after harvesting.

While respiratory protection is not normally required when using this product, fogging

Do not apply to pome fruit that has been previously treated with pyrimethanil via spray or discharge or by other means.

Do not apply to pome fruit as soon as possible and no more than 15 days after harvesting.

While respiratory protection is not normally required when using this product, fogging

Do not apply to pome fruit that has been previously treated with pyrimethanil via spray or discharge or by other means.

Do not apply to pome fruit as soon as possible and no more than 15 days after harvesting.

While respiratory protection is not normally required when using this product, fogging

Do not apply to pome fruit that has been previously treated with pyrimethanil via spray or discharge or by other means.

Do not apply to pome fruit as soon as possible and no more than 15 days after harvesting.

While respiratory protection is not normally required when using this product, fogging

Do not apply to pome fruit that has been previously treated with pyrimethanil via spray or discharge or by other means.

Do not apply to pome fruit as soon as possible and no more than 15 days after harvesting.

While respiratory protection is not normally required when using this product, fogging

Do not apply to pome fruit that has been previously treated with pyrimethanil via spray or discharge or by other means.

Do not apply to pome fruit as soon as possible and no more than 15 days after harvesting.

While respiratory protection is not normally required when using this product, fogging

Do not apply to pome fruit that has been previously treated with pyrimethanil via spray or discharge or by other means.

Do not apply to pome fruit as soon as possible and no more than 15 days after harvesting.

While respiratory protection is not normally required when using this product, fogging

Do not apply to pome fruit that has been previously treated with pyrimethanil via spray or discharge or by other means.

Do not apply to pome fruit as soon as possible and no more than 15 days after harvesting.

While respiratory protection is not normally required when using this product, fogging

Do not apply to pome fruit that has been previously treated with pyrimethanil via spray or discharge or by other means.

Do not apply to pome fruit as soon as possible and no more than 15 days after harvesting.

While respiratory protection is not normally required when using this product, fogging

Do not apply to pome fruit that has been previously treated with pyrimethanil via spray or discharge or by other means.

Do not apply to pome fruit as soon as possible and no more than 15 days after harvesting.

While respiratory protection is not normally required when using this product, fogging

Do not apply to pome fruit that has been previously treated with pyrimethanil via spray or discharge or by other means.

Do not apply to pome fruit as soon as possible and no more than 15 days after harvesting.