This product can be used in Federally Inspected Meat and Poultry Facilities as a sanitizer.

For other purposes such as cleaning. For Manual Operations fresh sanitizing solutions must be prepared daily or more often if the solution becomes diluted or soiled.

Inert Ingredients:
- Peroxyacetic Acid............................................ 5.6%
- Hydrogen Peroxide.............................................. 1.6%
- Water............................................................... 92.8%

This pesticide is toxic to birds, fish and aquatic invertebrates. Caution should be used when applying indoors because pets may be at risk. Do not inject solution into animals, or apply near animal feeding equipment. Do not allow pets, livestock, or ornamental aquatic fish to have direct contact with solution for at least 24 hours after application. This product is designed for use in animal hospitals, animal laboratories, kennels, pet shops, zoos, pet animal science laboratories, industrial facilities, animal hospitals, offices, government facilities, and veterinary science facilities. It may be used in veterinary science laboratories, industrial facilities, animal hospitals, offices, government facilities, and veterinary science facilities.

PREMIUM PEROXIDE II™ is designed for use in animal hospitals, animal laboratories, kennels, pet shops, zoos, pet animal science laboratories, industrial facilities, animal hospitals, offices, government facilities, and veterinary science facilities. It may be used in veterinary science laboratories, industrial facilities, animal hospitals, offices, government facilities, and veterinary science facilities.

Inert Ingredients:
- Peroxyacetic Acid............................................ 5.6%
- Hydrogen Peroxide.............................................. 1.6%
- Water............................................................... 92.8%

This pesticide is toxic to birds, fish and aquatic invertebrates. Caution should be used when applying indoors because pets may be at risk. Do not inject solution into animals, or apply near animal feeding equipment. Do not allow pets, livestock, or ornamental aquatic fish to have direct contact with solution for at least 24 hours after application. This product is designed for use in animal hospitals, animal laboratories, kennels, pet shops, zoos, pet animal science laboratories, industrial facilities, animal hospitals, offices, government facilities, and veterinary science facilities. It may be used in veterinary science laboratories, industrial facilities, animal hospitals, offices, government facilities, and veterinary science facilities.

Inert Ingredients:
- Peroxyacetic Acid............................................ 5.6%
- Hydrogen Peroxide.............................................. 1.6%
- Water............................................................... 92.8%

This pesticide is toxic to birds, fish and aquatic invertebrates. Caution should be used when applying indoors because pets may be at risk. Do not inject solution into animals, or apply near animal feeding equipment. Do not allow pets, livestock, or ornamental aquatic fish to have direct contact with solution for at least 24 hours after application. This product is designed for use in animal hospitals, animal laboratories, kennels, pet shops, zoos, pet animal science laboratories, industrial facilities, animal hospitals, offices, government facilities, and veterinary science facilities. It may be used in veterinary science laboratories, industrial facilities, animal hospitals, offices, government facilities, and veterinary science facilities.

Inert Ingredients:
- Peroxyacetic Acid............................................ 5.6%
- Hydrogen Peroxide.............................................. 1.6%
- Water............................................................... 92.8%

This pesticide is toxic to birds, fish and aquatic invertebrates. Caution should be used when applying indoors because pets may be at risk. Do not inject solution into animals, or apply near animal feeding equipment. Do not allow pets, livestock, or ornamental aquatic fish to have direct contact with solution for at least 24 hours after application. This product is designed for use in animal hospitals, animal laboratories, kennels, pet shops, zoos, pet animal science laboratories, industrial facilities, animal hospitals, offices, government facilities, and veterinary science facilities. It may be used in veterinary science laboratories, industrial facilities, animal hospitals, offices, government facilities, and veterinary science facilities.

Inert Ingredients:
- Peroxyacetic Acid............................................ 5.6%
- Hydrogen Peroxide.............................................. 1.6%
- Water............................................................... 92.8%

This pesticide is toxic to birds, fish and aquatic invertebrates. Caution should be used when applying indoors because pets may be at risk. Do not inject solution into animals, or apply near animal feeding equipment. Do not allow pets, livestock, or ornamental aquatic fish to have direct contact with solution for at least 24 hours after application. This product is designed for use in animal hospitals, animal laboratories, kennels, pet shops, zoos, pet animal science laboratories, industrial facilities, animal hospitals, offices, government facilities, and veterinary science facilities. It may be used in veterinary science laboratories, industrial facilities, animal hospitals, offices, government facilities, and veterinary science facilities.

Inert Ingredients:
- Peroxyacetic Acid............................................ 5.6%
- Hydrogen Peroxide.............................................. 1.6%
- Water............................................................... 92.8%

This pesticide is toxic to birds, fish and aquatic invertebrates. Caution should be used when applying indoors because pets may be at risk. Do not inject solution into animals, or apply near animal feeding equipment. Do not allow pets, livestock, or ornamental aquatic fish to have direct contact with solution for at least 24 hours after application. This product is designed for use in animal hospitals, animal laboratories, kennels, pet shops, zoos, pet animal science laboratories, industrial facilities, animal hospitals, offices, government facilities, and veterinary science facilities. It may be used in veterinary science laboratories, industrial facilities, animal hospitals, offices, government facilities, and veterinary science facilities.

Inert Ingredients:
- Peroxyacetic Acid............................................ 5.6%
- Hydrogen Peroxide.............................................. 1.6%
- Water............................................................... 92.8%

This pesticide is toxic to birds, fish and aquatic invertebrates. Caution should be used when applying indoors because pets may be at risk. Do not inject solution into animals, or apply near animal feeding equipment. Do not allow pets, livestock, or ornamental aquatic fish to have direct contact with solution for at least 24 hours after application. This product is designed for use in animal hospitals, animal laboratories, kennels, pet shops, zoos, pet animal science laboratories, industrial facilities, animal hospitals, offices, government facilities, and veterinary science facilities. It may be used in veterinary science laboratories, industrial facilities, animal hospitals, offices, government facilities, and veterinary science facilities.

Inert Ingredients:
- Peroxyacetic Acid............................................ 5.6%
- Hydrogen Peroxide.............................................. 1.6%
- Water............................................................... 92.8%

This pesticide is toxic to birds, fish and aquatic invertebrates. Caution should be used when applying indoors because pets may be at risk. Do not inject solution into animals, or apply near animal feeding equipment. Do not allow pets, livestock, or ornamental aquatic fish to have direct contact with solution for at least 24 hours after application. This product is designed for use in animal hospitals, animal laboratories, kennels, pet shops, zoos, pet animal science laboratories, industrial facilities, animal hospitals, offices, government facilities, and veterinary science facilities. It may be used in veterinary science laboratories, industrial facilities, animal hospitals, offices, government facilities, and veterinary science facilities.

Inert Ingredients:
- Peroxyacetic Acid............................................ 5.6%
- Hydrogen Peroxide.............................................. 1.6%
- Water............................................................... 92.8%

This pesticide is toxic to birds, fish and aquatic invertebrates. Caution should be used when applying indoors because pets may be at risk. Do not inject solution into animals, or apply near animal feeding equipment. Do not allow pets, livestock, or ornamental aquatic fish to have direct contact with solution for at least 24 hours after application. This product is designed for use in animal hospitals, animal laboratories, kennels, pet shops, zoos, pet animal science laboratories, industrial facilities, animal hospitals, offices, government facilities, and veterinary science facilities. It may be used in veterinary science laboratories, industrial facilities, animal hospitals, offices, government facilities, and veterinary science facilities.

Inert Ingredients:
- Peroxyacetic Acid............................................ 5.6%
- Hydrogen Peroxide.............................................. 1.6%
- Water............................................................... 92.8%

This pesticide is toxic to birds, fish and aquatic invertebrates. Caution should be used when applying indoors because pets may be at risk. Do not inject solution into animals, or apply near animal feeding equipment. Do not allow pets, livestock, or ornamental aquatic fish to have direct contact with solution for at least 24 hours after application. This product is designed for use in animal hospitals, animal laboratories, kennels, pet shops, zoos, pet animal science laboratories, industrial facilities, animal hospitals, offices, government facilities, and veterinary science facilities. It may be used in veterinary science laboratories, industrial facilities, animal hospitals, offices, government facilities, and veterinary science facilities.

Inert Ingredients:
- Peroxyacetic Acid............................................ 5.6%
- Hydrogen Peroxide.............................................. 1.6%
- Water............................................................... 92.8%

This pesticide is toxic to birds, fish and aquatic invertebrates. Caution should be used when applying indoors because pets may be at risk. Do not inject solution into animals, or apply near animal feeding equipment. Do not allow pets, livestock, or ornamental aquatic fish to have direct contact with solution for at least 24 hours after application. This product is designed for use in animal hospitals, animal laboratories, kennels, pet shops, zoos, pet animal science laboratories, industrial facilities, animal hospitals, offices, government facilities, and veterinary science facilities. It may be used in veterinary science laboratories, industrial facilities, animal hospitals, offices, government facilities, and veterinary science facilities.

Inert Ingredients:
- Peroxyacetic Acid............................................ 5.6%
- Hydrogen Peroxide.............................................. 1.6%
- Water............................................................... 92.8%

This pesticide is toxic to birds, fish and aquatic invertebrates. Caution should be used when applying indoors because pets may be at risk. Do not inject solution into animals, or apply near animal feeding equipment. Do not allow pets, livestock, or ornamental aquatic fish to have direct contact with solution for at least 24 hours after application. This product is designed for use in animal hospitals, animal laboratories, kennels, pet shops, zoos, pet animal science laboratories, industrial facilities, animal hospitals, offices, government facilities, and veterinary science facilities. It may be used in veterinary science laboratories, industrial facilities, animal hospitals, offices, government facilities, and veterinary science facilities.

Inert Ingredients:
- Peroxyacetic Acid............................................ 5.6%
- Hydrogen Peroxide.............................................. 1.6%
- Water............................................................... 92.8%

This pesticide is toxic to birds, fish and aquatic invertebrates. Caution should be used when applying indoors because pets may be at risk. Do not inject solution into animals, or apply near animal feeding equipment. Do not allow pets, livestock, or ornamental aquatic fish to have direct contact with solution for at least 24 hours after application. This product is designed for use in animal hospitals, animal laboratories, kennels, pet shops, zoos, pet animal science laboratories, industrial facilities, animal hospitals, offices, government facilities, and veterinary science facilities. It may be used in veterinary science laboratories, industrial facilities, animal hospitals, offices, government facilities, and veterinary science facilities.

Inert Ingredients:
- Peroxyacetic Acid............................................ 5.6%
- Hydrogen Peroxide.............................................. 1.6%
- Water............................................................... 92.8%